Monique Ford / Woman 2 / 72" x 48" oil on canvas 2007

May 1, 2007- New York, NY. Rhonda Schaller Studio is proud to present Crossroads, from May 31 through June 23, 2007. Opening reception June 7th, 6 - 8 pm. A group exhibition of 27 artists, working in an array of materials from traditional watercolors to computer generated graphics, from human hair to found paper. The selected artists travel through a soulful array of artistic directions, each one an authentic voice within the collective crossroads of contemporary art.

Selected from the gallery's inventory of Art Link Network artists, each artist has contributed a work that illuminates life's rugged terrain with purpose, articulating boundaries encountered in themselves or in the world around them - in shape, color or materials, one or all of which is at the heart of their subject matter. We see in each art work an illustration of the intrinsic connectedness each artist has to the poetry of the familiar, a revelation of home found in self-questioning, whose intent only a modern look at society and self could reveal.

Participating artists are Monique Ford, Mare Vaccaro, Elena Fajt, Vlatko Ceric, Daniela I. Ovtcharov, Desi Minchillo, Helen R. Klebesadel, Cynthia Eardley, Randee Silv, Clare Murray Adams, Laurie Joan Aron, Kari-Mette Astrup, Ellie Brown, Sandra de Nijs, Johanna Gillman, Carrie Hoelzer, Jacqueline Jrolf, Elizabeth Leader, Julian Lesser, Mary Kay Neumann, Susan Sanborn North, Jeremias Paul, Sherry Shine, Millee Tibbs, Sheryl Westergreen, Olivia Carol Williams, and Nanette Wylde.
